COLLECT:

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

or

Gracious Father, by the obedience of Jesus you brought salvation to our wayward world: draw us into harmony with your will, that we may find all things restored in him, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

FIRST READING: 2 Timothy 4:1-8

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 10.40-end

'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.’

POST COMMUNION PRAYER:

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope: teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

WEEKLY NOTICES:

CRANLEIGH FOOD AND FARMING FESTIVAL We have been invited to have a stand once again at the festival on Sunday 2nd August. We would be grateful for any offers of help to man the stand on the day. Set-up is at 8.30am and the festival runs until approx. 4pm. Any time that you can offer would be a great help. Please email

Susan.tresman@stnicolascranleigh.org.uk if you can help. Thank you

AN INVITATION TO YOU ALL. The Trackers team is changing, and we would really like to welcome new helpers and leaders so we can continue our ministry on Sunday mornings. In a very exciting way, all members of our team are being called by God to expand their roles in our church, and soon we will not be able to fill our monthly rota.

Could you be the person who helps our primary-aged children meet with God to understand his blessings? We have two different roles within our Trackers group:

1. To sit with the group while the session is taught,
2. To help deliver the sessions, which are pre-planned with just a small amount of set-up.

We will help those who volunteer to do some simple training as a part of the wider churches safer recruitment policy.

Our lovely children need lots of faces in their church family to enable and to grow their faith. If you would like to know more, and to sit in on a session (which I would recommend to everyone anyway!) please do let me know. Claire Jones

ERIK'S FAREWELL LUNCH Erik's last service with us will be Sunday 19th July at 10am. We would love for you all to join us for the service, followed by a BBQ lunch in the church rooms and adjoining side garden!

We would be grateful for contributions of salads and desserts, a sign-up sheet for which can be found in the cross-aisle.

We will be welcoming donations (on the day or via this QR code) towards the cost of the BBQ food and drink should anyone wish to contribute in this way, but please note that you do not need to have made a donation to come and join the lunch. Everyone is very welcome and we hope it will be a busy and fun-filled celebration for Erik and the family.

We will provide vegetarian and gluten-free options, it would be really useful if you could let us know if you will require either of these options so that we can cater accordingly. Thank you.

MEMORY LANE had fun last week when the Lead Team helped Guests play one of the 23 Angklung's in harmony together. These are hand-made bamboo Instruments from Indonesia provided by one of the guests who plays regularly in an Angklung Music Group. Memory Lane in August start with their monthly Walk In The Park around Knowle Park on the 10th before returning to the Arts Centre on the 17th August for a further talk and discussion for Carer Guests and ML Team by Dr Jill Rasmussen. Dr Rasmussen, a National Authority for Alzheimer's, updates Memory Lane with the latest developments whilst giving helpful information to Carer Guests and their partners who experience Dementia.
